Traveler's Choice | Choose ONE of the following included excursions.

Florence. Discover the UNESCO World Heritage Historic Centre of Florence, the birthplace of the Renaissance and home to masterpieces of unparalleled art, architecture and literature, on a walking tour of the historic city center. Admire Filippo Brunelleschi's iconic dome on the Cattedrale di Santa Maria del Fiore, known as the Florence Duomo, known for Brunelleschi's Dome — completed in 1436, with Gothic and Renaissance elements. In front of the cathedral, marvel at Lorenzo Ghiberti's gilded bronze-cast "Gates of Paradise" — created for the Baptistery of San Giovanni by Lorenzo Ghiberti, it depicts biblical themes in stunning detail. Witness the Ponte Vecchio, Florence's oldest bridge dating to 1345, with medieval stone arches and stunning views of the Arno River; and Piazza della Signoria, the center of political power since medieval times. During the excursion, you will also visit the Galleria dell'Accademia to view Michelangelo's masterpiece, the legendary 17-foot tall statue of David. Cap off your excursion with a delicious lunch at a local restaurant. (Active).

Lucca & Villa Reale di Marlia. The 16th-century walled city of Lucca is rich in Renaissance history, culture and exquisite architecture. Discover Lucca on a walking tour of the city center, encircled by imposing fortress walls and towers. Walk through the lively Piazza dell'Anfiteatro, an oval-shaped square built on the remains of a Roman amphitheater. As you stroll, take note of the stunning architecture all around, such as the Romanesque-style Duomo di San Martino, Lucca Cathedral; the magnificent San Michele in Foro Romanesque church; and the Torre delle Ore clock tower with a working 18th-century clock mechanism. Stop to visit the birthplace and museum of Italian composer Giacomo Puccini to view his piano, handwritten scores and personal items. Take a short drive from Lucca to tour the stunning historic estate of Villa Reale di Marlia and its gardens. The baroque palace boasts lavish interiors showcasing frescoes, chandeliers and antique furnishings from the Napoleonic era, and the magnificent gardens feature a breathtaking mix of Italian, English and baroque-style gardens. Cap off your excursion with a Tuscan farm-to-table lunch at Montecarlo Farm. (Moderate)

Pisa Afternoon Excursion. After a relaxing morning and lunch on board the ship, set out for an afternoon excursion to

Pisa to discover the magnificent Piazza dei Miracoli, or Square of Miracles —a UNESCO World Heritage site celebrated for its extraordinary beauty and rich history. This iconic square is home to four remarkable examples of medieval architecture: the Cathedral, the Baptistery, the Camposanto Monumentale, and the world-famous Leaning Tower of Pisa. While you won't be entering the Leaning Tower, you'll learn about its fascinating history and unique structure before enjoying guided tours of the Cathedral and Baptistery. Afterwards, enjoy some free time to explore the Camposanto Monumentale on your own or treat yourself to a visit to a local gelateria. (Moderate)

Return to the ship in Livorno and enjoy dinner on board this evening.

Day 4 | Porto Venere | Cinque Terre

Wake this morning to extraordinary views as the ship arrives in the medieval town of Porto Venere. After breakfast, disembark the ship for a private boat cruise to the UNESCO World Heritage site of Cinque Terre, dating to the 10th century.

Cinque Terre Discovery.Approaching Cinque Terre from the water is an unforgettable experience. Its five villages appear like vibrant jewels set into the rugged cliffs of the Ligurian coastline, with clusters of colorful buildings and houses clinging to the dramatic cliffsides overlooking the Ligurian Sea. Above, green terrace vineyards are carved into the hills, and ancient footpaths and staircases zigzag up the cliffs connecting the homes and vineyards. You'll visit two of the storied villages today. Vernazza is a picturesque village with colorful houses hugging a small natural harbor and postcard-worthy views from its rugged coastline. Monterosso is the largest village with the region's only sandy beach and is notable for its fortified old town and the remains of Fieschi Castle. Stroll the hilly, cobblestone streets of the villages to soak up the enchanting ambience and enjoy time at leisure to explore at your own pace and peruse the eclectic shops and cafes. (Active)

You can return to the ship for lunch or remain in Porto Venere for lunch on your own and have extra time to enjoy the coastal scenery.

Join your fellow passengers for the Captain's Welcome Reception this evening, followed by dinner on board the ship.

Day 5 | Bonifacio, France

Enjoy breakfast on board this morning as the ship arrives in Bonifacio on the French island of Corsica, where you will disembark for an excursion.

Bonifacio Old Town Tram & Walking Tour. Your discovery of this dramatically situated medieval town begins with a tram ride from the harbor to the Haute Ville, or upper town, and around the plateau along the cliffs to enjoy panoramic views. You will then stroll through Bonifacio's 9th-century citadel, perched high on a limestone promontory, to see such historic landmarks as Place Bir Hakeim, St. Jean Baptiste church and Le Grain de Sable — a weathered rock formation that appears to collapse into the sea. Savor the splendor of the Jardin des Vestiges and see where Napoleon stayed in 1793. You will have some free time in Bonifacio before taking the tram back to the port and returning to the ship. (Moderate)

Pompeii Tour. Engulfed by the tephra of Mount Vesuvius in 79 A.D., the ancient city of Pompeii was frozen in time for centuries. Excavated 17 centuries after petrification, the UNESCO-designated ruins intimately reveal Roman daily rituals during Emperor Titus' reign.
